

Center for Organizational Responsibility and Advancement

Certificate Training Program

TEACHING MEN OF COLOR IN THE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Every instructional faculty member can effectively educate college men of color, learn strategies and approaches that can enhance success outcomes for these men.

PROGRAM FEATURES

- Designed for community college instructors
- Fully online program delivery
- Interactive dialogue with other learners
- One-week long program
- Tangible solutions for real challenges

PROGRAM MODULES

- Factors Necessitating Enhanced Teaching and Learning Strategies
- Theoretical and Epistemological Foundations of Teaching Men of Color
- Building Relationships with College Men of Color
- Teaching and Learning Strategies for Instructional Faculty

LEARNING FORMAT

- e-Learning videos
- Virtual discussion board
- Real-time conferencing with instructors
- Practical readings

ENROLL NOW at www.coralearning.org; $200 per learner

OFFERINGS August 3-7, 2015 OR August 17-21, 2015

Program Developed and Taught By

J. Luke Wood, PhD
Frank Harris III, EdD

Associate Professors of Community
College Leadership

Co-Director of the Minority Male
Community College Collaborative

Co-Authors with Khalid White of Teaching Men of Color in the Community College

This is a non-credit, non-CEU professional development training program